

READY TO DIVE INTO A NEW OPPORTUNITY? BECOME A ROYAL NAVY DIVER

PART OF
THE WARFARE
PROFESSION

You'll train to become a world-class diver using mixed gas re-breathers, surface-supplied umbilical, and scuba. Join a small, professional team delivering vital operations to the Royal Navy including mine countermeasures, bomb disposal, force protection and ship/submarine maintenance and repair – while travelling the world!

- ▶ No qualifications needed – we'll fund all of your professional diver training
- ▶ A starting salary of at least £25,200, increasing up to £62,073 as you progress
- ▶ Additional pay on completing training starting at £8,537, and rising to £21,798 as your career progresses
- ▶ Additional diving pay of at least £4.62 per day when qualified
- ▶ Worldwide travel and adventurous training opportunities
- ▶ Seven weeks of paid holiday every year
- ▶ Free gym membership, medical and dental care
